

hi·ber·ca·tion

Spend a Cozy, Charming Day in Auburn, NY

Auburn's blend of culture, creativity, small-town charm, and winter-ready experiences makes it the perfect Hibernation retreat. Cozy shops, comforting flavors, and peaceful outdoor moments create a relaxing day right in the heart of Cayuga County.

Morning Warm-Up: Downtown Coffee & the Equal Rights Heritage Center

Begin your experience at the Equal Rights Heritage Center, where you can explore exhibits honoring New York's trailblazing history and browse local goods at the Taste NY Market. It's a welcoming spot to gather inspiration for your Auburn adventure.

Late Morning Exploring: Auburn's One-of-a-Kind Shops

Auburn's small shops offer cozy winter browsing, perfect for a Hibernation morning.

Reuse Refuge is a sustainability-focused shop filled with eco-friendly goods, refillable items, and thoughtful gifts for mindful living.

Regenerations offers a beautifully curated collection of upcycled furniture, vintage treasures, and handcrafted décor. Every piece has character and charm.

These shops make it easy to slow down and enjoy the warmth of the community.

Cozy Lunch Break: Prison City Pub & Brewery

Warm up with a delicious lunch at Prison City Pub & Brewery, known for award-winning brews, hearty dishes, and a friendly, welcoming atmosphere. It's a perfect winter stop to recharge before an afternoon of exploring. While there be sure to order a class of Hibernation a light vanilla porter, with mix of Madagascar and Tahitian vanilla beans brewed just for Tour Cayuga in celebration of Hibernation!

Afternoon Winter Walk: Emerson Park

Head to Emerson Park for a peaceful winter walk along Owasco Lake. Enjoy scenic views, quiet pathways, and refreshing cold-weather air. Winter adds a calm beauty to the shoreline ideal for a cozy Hibernation moment.

Late Afternoon: Ward O'Hara Agricultural & Country Living Museum

Continue your day right across the street with a visit to the Ward O'Hara Agricultural & Country Living Museum, a unique space filled with local history, vintage farm equipment, and rural heritage displays. It's a fun, family-friendly stop, and a great indoor activity during the winter season.

Dinner in Downtown Auburn

Wrap up your day with a cozy dinner at one of Auburn's welcoming restaurants. Whether you're craving comfort food, seasonal dishes, or something upscale, downtown Auburn offers plenty of choices to end your Hibernation experience on a warm note.

Click here to view our listing of restaurants.